

Quiz time

CHALLENGE: Complete this as a worksheet or ask a member of your family to be a quizmaster! Use the work you've done so far to help.

An added twist... this quiz has questions from Pack 2 and 3.

1. Where did you stop to take a break in your guided imagery walk?
 - a) Waterfall
 - b) Fallen tree
 - c) Back at base
2. Starting with the forest floor, what is the correct order of the layers above it?
 - a) Emergent, Understory, Canopy
 - b) Understory, Canopy, Emergent
 - c) Canopy, Understory, Emergent
3. What is the scientific word that we use instead of minibeast?
 - a) Invertebrate
 - b) Vertebrate
 - c) Creepy crawly
4. On Earth the amount of trees cut down every minute is equal to what?
 - a) Car parking space
 - b) Green house
 - c) A football pitch
5. Which one of these activities are NOT following 'Think global, act local'?
 - a) Using a reusable water bottle
 - b) Leaving the tap on when brushing your teeth
 - c) Doing a car share with friends
6. What was the name of the red fruit you saw on the trek?
 - a) Bush apple
 - b) Bush carrot
 - c) Bush fruit
7. Which layer does the African leopard live?
 - a) Only the forest floor
 - b) Only the understory
 - c) Hunting on the forest floor and eating in the understory
8. What comes first in the food chain?
 - a) Consumer
 - b) Animals
 - c) Producer
9. What two 'M's do we talk about in mimicry?
 - a) Mix and match
 - b) Major and minor
 - c) Model and mimic
10. Which animal on the Lebialelem Life cards has the greatest noise level?
 - a) Bannerman's turaco
 - b) African forest elephant
 - c) Nigerian-Cameroon chimpanzee

10